Brevard, North Carolina – Representative W. David Guice announces his plans to seek a second term to the North Carolina House of Representatives. On Monday, February 8, 2010 Guice will officially file as a candidate for re-election. Representative Guice is currently in his first term representing District 113, including Henderson, Polk and Transylvania counties, in the North Carolina House of Representatives. “Serving the people of District 113 and indeed all of North Carolina in the General Assembly has been one of the most humbling experiences of my life” said Representative Guice.

During the 2009 Session of the North Carolina General Assembly, Representative Guice tackled issues such as affordable housing for teachers and local employees in Transylvania County, protecting private property rights and stopping forced annexation, reducing government spending and making our public safety system safer for the people of North Carolina – just to name a few. “The long session of 2009 was an historic time for all of us in North Carolina” said Guice. “We faced and continue to face a struggling economy, wasteful government spending and an unwillingness to listen to the voices of the people.”

If re-elected Representative Guice plans to continue fighting for the people of District 113 and all of North Carolina. “The people of North Carolina deserve better of their government” said David Guice. “We owe it to the people to give our best effort on every issue that faces our state. It is only by working together and placing partisan politics to the side that we will truly be able to create a strong and bright future for all people throughout our great state.”

“Over the coming weeks and months it is my goal to continue listening to the people, those that are directly impacted by decisions made in Raleigh” said Representative Guice. “It is my goal to run a positive and upbeat campaign, elevating the level of public debate on the important issues that we face as a district and state. Please continue to contact my office if you have any questions or concerns.”
