Brevard, North Carolina – I will be holding a town hall meeting on Tuesday, September 8, 2009 in Brevard, North Carolina. The meeting will begin at 7:00pm and will be held in the Rogow Room of the Transylvania County Public Library in downtown Brevard.

I want to take this opportunity to invite members of the public and the media to this event. I will be discussing this past year's legislative session and talking about many of the issues that are important to the people of District 113. As I have said throughout my time in the North Carolina General Assembly it is imperative that we all take an active role in the future of North Carolina. This town hall meeting is the first step. I want to hear from the people and there will be ample time during this meeting for questions and answers.

This meeting is the first of a series of meetings that I will be having throughout District 113. I will be in Columbus on Tuesday, September 15 at the Polk County Middle School auditorium beginning at 7:30pm. I am also working with my legislative colleagues to set a date, time and location for a town hall meeting in Henderson County.
